

International Humanitarian Law and Accountability for Mass Atrocities: Policy and Practice

Project Title	International Humanitarian Law and Accountability for Mass Atrocities: Policy and Practice
Project Summary	Emory University Law School Human Rights Clinic students provide policy support and research on matters relating to international criminal justice for mass atrocities, including war crimes, crimes against humanity, and war crimes. Issues could include emerging and innovative mechanisms for ensuring
Country	United States
Agency	Department of State
DoS Office	J/GCJ
Post	N/A
Section	N/A
Number of Interns	1

Project Description

Emory University Law School Human Rights Clinic students provide policy support and research on matters relating to international criminal justice for mass atrocities, including war crimes, crimes against humanity, and war crimes. Issues could include emerging and innovative mechanisms for ensuring accountability; analyzing trends in international humanitarian law and international human rights law; country-specific research, and drafting public talking points and speeches.

Desired Skills Interests

Additional Information

None

Language Requirements

None